

Side Event

2nd High-Level Meeting of the Global Partnership for Effective Development Cooperation
28 Nov – 1 Dec 2016, Nairobi, Kenya

Synchronizing Efforts for Domestic Resource Mobilisation – The Role of the Addis Tax Initiative

Wednesday, 30 November 2016

1.30 p.m. – 2.30 p.m.

Room: Aberdares

Kenyatta International Convention Centre Nairobi

The Side Event will provide a brief update on the progress of the Addis Tax Initiative (ATI) and discuss effective development cooperation focusing on coordinated cooperation efforts in the field of Domestic Revenue Mobilisation (DRM). Short presentations will introduce the new DRM database initiated by ATI which will provide an overview of technical assistance projects carried out worldwide in the area of DRM as well as a practical guide for operationalising the OECD's "Principles for international engagement in supporting developing countries in revenue matters". The Panel discussion and discussion with the audience will elaborate on concrete recommendations to improve development partner coordination in the field of DRM by discussing best practices and opportunities for improvement.

We cordially invite you to join our discussion.*

* Side event participants need to be registered for the GPEDC High-level Meeting.
